

MD NOMAN ALAM

Student

About Me

I am a third-semester BSc Data Science student at United International University with a solid foundation in Python programming and data analysis. Currently, I work as an intern and course facilitator at Nobel Navigators, applying theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios. Active in the UIU Computer Club, I aim to leverage my skills and experience for continuous learning and growth in data science.

+880-17639-13561

nomanalam002@gmail.com

53/5 Abdul Goni Road, Lahini,
Kushtia, Bangladesh

LANGUAGE

- English (Fluent)
- Bengali (Native)

EXPERTISE

- Excel
- Python
- Pandas
- Matplotlib
- Problem-Solving
- Teamwork

EXPERIENCE

Nobel Coaching and Training Intern

9841 Washingtonian Blvd.
Gaithersburg, MD 20878 USA
2023 - present

- Completed a 90-hour Fundamentals Program that focused on enhancing technical and leadership skills and currently working as a course facilitator.
- Courses Taken:
 - Introduction to Web Design
 - Pitch and Presentation
 - Basics of Internet Troubleshooting and Communication
 - Leadership
- Course Led:
 - Leadership
- Actively participated in a Learner-to-Leader program, assisting peers in mastering technical and leadership competencies.
- Developed strong communication and presentation skills through practical and theoretical sessions.
- Gained experience in troubleshooting internet-related issues and basic web design principles.

UIU Computer Club 2023 - present

As an active member of the UIU Computer Club, I engage in various activities that further my understanding of current technologies and trends in data science.

EDUCATION

United International University
BSc in Data Science
2023-2027

SKILLS SUMMARY

Soft Skills

78 %

Technical Skills

81 %